

IOM International Organization for Migration
OIM Organisation Internationale pour les Migrations
OIM Organización Internacional para las Migraciones

Maurizio BUSATTI

Chief of Mission

International Organization for Migration – IOM

Nepal

Mr. Busatti has been appointed as the Chief of Mission, Kathmandu, representing the International Organization for Migration in Nepal, by the IOM Director-General in December 2012. Prior service as an international civil servant includes postings as the Chief of Mission, IOM Paris, France (2010 – 2012), Chief of Mission, IOM Ankara, Turkey (2006 – 2010), Chief of Mission IOM Tirana, Albania (2000 – 2006). He served as Regional Programme Officer at IOM Nairobi, Kenya (1998 – 2000).

He coordinated the project “Centre for Research February ‘74” (1997/98) at CERFE – EC Kenya and Somalia. He also served as Regional Head of Office at IOM Benguela, Angola in the year 1996. Mr. Busatti contributed to Relief Programmes as a Programme Officer of UNHCR Forécariah at Guinea. He served as Consultant for project development and logistics at Center for preparation of catastrophe at Shrivenham at Royal Military College of Science, United Kingdom, in 1993. He was In-charge for repatriation operations as Assistant Programme Officer of UNHCR Maputo, Mozambique (1990 – 93). He worked as Training Coordinator at CGIL (Italian Union Confederation) at Florence, Italy in 1990. Also he served as Welfare Officer at Florence City Hall, Italy from 1988 – 89.

Mr. Busatti holds Master’s degree in Defence Administration from University of Cranfield, Royal Military College of Science, Shrivenham, UK. As well as he has Post graduate Diploma in international relations from Foundation of Research of International Studies, Florence. He is Italian national and has command over English, French and Portuguese languages.

(November 2012)
